SKILLFUL SURGERY!
Removal of Urinary Calculi by the Knife.
A LUCKY MAN.
Mr Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N Y, had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they call Stricture of the Urethra without benefit Ho finally consulted Dr David Kennedy, of Rondout N Y, who found this trouble to be Urinary Calculi, or Stones in the Bladder The Doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific "Favorite Remedy" to prevent their reformation The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect
While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all kidney and Bladder diseases it is equally valuable in cases of Bilious Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitution of woman Try it! Your druggist has it, and its cost is only one dollar a bottle The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice Don't forget the name and address Dr David Kennedy, Rondout New York d&wlm aug6

THIS WORLD'S FRIENDSHIP.

BY AUGUSTA MOORE

There is friendship, even on earth, well worthy of its name, but much of that which is called such, is well set forth in the story of the Frenchman who offered and urged upon his poor neighbor, the use of his fine carriage

"You must be very weary from so much walking—do accept the use of my carriage—you know not how much pleasure it will be to me to send my carriage to you. At any time command it."

At last the poor tired man concluded to avail himself of all these generous offers.

"What!" cried the Frenchman, angrily, 'Lend my carriage? No, I will never lend my carriage!'

"But—but" said the confused neighbor, "but, sir you so often and I thought so sincerely offer'd me the use of your carriage otherwise I never should have presumed."

"O" said the Frenchman calming down, "You are welcome to the compliment but you shall never have my carriage

The Irish Americans of Maine are leaving the Democratic ranks and will vote the Republican ticket by hundreds at the coming election. The Know Nothing record of Plaisted is too much for them.

GEN. WEAVER AND HIS MISSION.

We are glad that Gen. Weaver is coming into Maine. He certainly will be a good and welcome ally for our Maine Republicans if he will talk here about the Alabama Democrats as he talked in Boston Friday night. He said there "that no man or person within the State of Alabama ever pretended to deny the charge that they were in the habit in that State of counting out men who were honestly elected and of installing men who were notoriously defeated at the polls." He had told the people there the best thing for them to do was to proclaim a fair election, and let the Greenback party test its strength with the Democratic party. Gen Weaver goes on to say in his speech:

I am told that the Democratic majority is greater than their entire vote in the State of Alabama. And what is true of Alabama is true of every State in the South. If there is a solid South in the next election it will be because the 100,000 majority of the National Greenback party in Mississippi will not be counted, because the majority in Texas will not be counted, because the majority in Arkansas will not be counted.

How do the Maine Greenbackers like that, when they are asked to give their votes to help place in power the same Democratic party that counted out the forty thousand Greenback majority in the State of Alabama?

On the morning previous to General Weaver's speech in Boston, he was interviewed by a representative of the Boston Traveller, when the General made the following startling revelations

Traveller Representative—Gen. Weaver, we have heard many reports touching your reception in the South during your recent canvass What are the facts?

General Weaver—My reception, personally, both in Alabama and Arkansas, was cordial and courteous

T R —You encountered no violence?

Gen. Weaver—On the contrary, my meetings were largely attended in both States

T R —Was the vote fair?

Gen. Weaver—The vote in Alabama was certainly not fair, it was in no sense an expression of the popular will, judging from what I learned while canvassing the State, and from private advices which I have received since the election.

T. R.—To what extent, General, was the vote unfair?

Gen Weaver—The Democratic party has about 70,000 votes in Alabama, and the Republican and Greenback parties have about 117,000 votes on a full and a fair count. The Republican party issued a circular advising the disbanding of their organization for the time being, and urging their voters to support the Independent or Greenback ticket. That advice was universally accepted by the Republican voters and politicians all over the State of Alabama There was, as the event proved, nothing but a Democratic election held in the State, the opposition had no part or lot in it, except to cast a useless vote, did not assist in the count, nor were they present to witness it.

T R —Do I understand you to say that neither the Republicans, nor the Independents or Greenbackers, had any inspectors at the polls?

Gen. Weaver—Yes, sir, I do. When the Democratic officials appointed any opposition inspectors they took a blind negro, or some one who could neither read nor write, or some man who if intelligent, could be relied upon as a friend of the opposition at all times.

T. R —Yet, as I understand you there was no violence anywhere, I should like to ask you how the fraud was accomplished?

Gen Weaver—The methods employed to set aside the actual will of the people were various For instance, here is a large negro county, we will say, and they set rumors afloat that there was likely to be a difficulty at the election, this would have the desired effect, the negroes were intimidated in large numbers and stayed at home in fear. Then when the negro comes to the polls to vote he is asked where he resides, and how old he is, and how he knows it and all manner of questions which delay and confuse him, the whites in the meantime expeditiously polling their full vote without any of this sort of interruption Thus they consumed the time in many places in questioning the negroes until the hour arrived for closing the polls, when hundreds of them stood in line ready to vote without the opportunity of doing so If that does not succeed they count the ballots and substitute them as they please. Take the case of McGhee's Switch polling place where we now positively, that 530 votes were thrown for our candidates, against only 40 Democratic ballots; yet the returns gave 400 majority for the Democratic ticket. They simply destroyed the ballots as cast, and substituted other tickets

In some places the voter was required to walk up to a big door with a hole near the top, to which he had to reach up and pass over his ballot into the hand of a man behind whom he could not see and who of course, could destroy it, or do what he liked with it

Those Greenbackers in Maine who were formerly Republicans, after the above revelation, must be disgusted with their relationship to the Democratic party. Will they continue to act with that party, which, according to Wade Hampton, is striving for the principles of Lee and Stonewall Jackson? Gen. Weaver, by his report of the manner in which Alabama was carried by the Democrats at the recent election, is helping them to an understanding of the character of the party which hopes to come into power by the aid which the Greenbackers may directly or indirectly afford.

MR. GOVE'S POSITION

The demand is so great for the manly, noble letter of Hon. E. H. Gove, that we re-publish it in to-day's edition. The universal comment is in one direction—that it is a clear and forcible statement of the case—the issues in a nut shell, the whole matter of the campaign boiled down and compressed. It will stand as one of the best and most effective documents of the campaign, and in future years Mr. Gove will point to it with pride as the instrument by which he severed the political associations that were dragging him into the old Copperhead camp.

The opposition see clearly that their forces are being decimated. The Democratic papers are rounding up their backs against the Greenbackers, and are indulging in very ill natured remarks. The relations between the two parties are changing, and we anticipate a stampede from the Fusion ranks, during the next two weeks, that shall exceed anything in the recent politics of Maine. A most significant article appears in the national organ of the Greenbackers at Washington, the National View, in which, following the announcement that the Greenbackers of Maine will have their own electorial ticket, and that there will be no fusion at the Presidential election, the editor says

We are greatly mistaken in the temper and sense of our Maine friends if they for a moment will allow themselves and the principles of their party to be made the tool of Democrats for the purpose of aiding in a success for which they are to be kicked off at the winning post. The importance of Maine in the coming election is very great and her position exceptional. The Democracy which claims a solid South, would use this northernmost key to unlock the door which has barred them from power so long. They depend on Maine Greenbackers to help them do it. But for our third party there is no hope in such a change. Will you pool issues with the Democracy, which sees nothing but a thing to mock your candidate who defied their Congress and forced them to a vote, who have nothing but scorn for the effort of a good man to give homes to his followers? Better far to be an active and solid minority than swallowed up in the victory of false allies. Every effort at fusion with opposing element weakens and destroys. There is no hope for the third party anywhere save on the platform they have chosen and an uncompromising fight for its principles.

NOROMBEGA, TO-NIGHT.

Grand Republican Rally!

SENATOR BLAINE AND GEN. KING, THE SPEAKERS.

One of the grandest meetings of any campaign will be witnessed at Norombega Hall this evening, and there awaits Senator Blaine—the beloved, the honored, the gifted statesman—an ovation that will show, in some little degree, the ardent affection in which he is held by the Republicans of the Queen City of the East This will be Senator Blaine's first speech in Bangor since the opening of this campaign, and has been looked forward to with delight by thousands who are anxious to hear him and do to him honor

The meeting will also be addressed by Gen. Adam E King of Maryland, a member of Gen Hancock's staff during the war—a distinguished soldier and eloquent orator

During the evening, the Bangor Band will play several selections The galleries are reserved for the ladies, but they will confer a kindness upon the committee by not occupying the floor.

Previous to the meeting there will be a grand torchlight parade of the various local organizations, including Companies A and B, Garfield and Davis Veteran Guard, the Loyal League and the Garfield club, turning out about four hundred men, marching to the delightful music of the Bangor Band The Bucksport Club, 50 in number accompanied by the Bucksport Band, will arrive at 7 30, by special train, and join the procession The clubs will escort the speakers to the hall

An Overflow Meeting.

We would say to those intending to attend the Republican Mass Meeting, this evening, that they need not be deterred from coming on account of the crowd After the hall is filled there will be an open-air overflow meeting Several eminent speakers will be in attendance to address the meeting.

THE MYSTERIOUS CHAMPION

The Commercial having ignominiously backed down from its challenge to Capt Boutelle, and Gen Plaisted having failed to come to time, that journal pretends to have another party to thrust into the breach against the Captain

We understand, from good authority, that the "veiled Prophet" held in reserve by the Commercial, is no other than that intellectual prodigy J P Bass, Esq Our readers will easily see why this is an impossibility We have no speakers of just the proper calibre to meet Mr. Bass on the stump, and certainly none against whom our rancor is so pitiless as to condemn to listen to Mr Bass for an hour, for unless he spoke first, there would be no audience at the close When the Veiled Prophet of Khorassan in Moore's poem prevailed himself to the expectant throng the effect was something like that which would be produced by Mr Bass' appearance on the stage at Norombega

"He raised his veil—the crowd turned slowly round,
Looked at him—shrieked, and shuddering fled the ground"

To discuss issues with the head of the opposition ticket is one thing, to gratify Mr Bass by furnishing him with a Bangor audience, which he could not otherwise get, is quite another. We shall "hardly ever" do that

"THE ONLY AND ORIGINAL."

The Commercial may yet get to itself the reputation of being "the only and original" temperance organ. The Democratic press generally were never so ardent prohibitionist as now They have laid aside their doctrine of love and good will, and are shouting themselves hoarse for "law," law" The Commercial appears very much interested in the success of the new temperance party, and speaks of some mythical occasion when the Republicans broke up a temperance convention Now to show just the regard for the temperance cause possessed by this hypocritical liar, we reproduce the following from its editorial of July 22d, 1880, on this subject

THERE IS SOMETHING TO BE SAID IN FAVOR OF THE POTATO BUG, AFTER ALL A SMALL ARMY OF THEM BROKE UP, ROUTED AND UTTERLY PUT TO FLIGHT A CONVENTION OF LONG-HAIRED TEMPERANCE FANATICS IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS A FEW DAYS AGO. NOW IF THE BUGS CAN ONLY BE INDUCED TO GIVE UP PREYING UPON THE POTATO VINES AND GIVE THEIR ENTIRE ATTENTION TO TEMPERANCE MEETINGS, THEY MAY BECOME BENEFACTORS INSTEAD OF SCOURGES TO THE HUMAN RACE —[Bangor Commercial, July 22, 1880.

THE HANCOCK VETERANS NEUTRAL IN POLITICS.

We have heard of the clergyman who was called to the pastorate of a church with the tacit understanding that to prevent all feuds in the church and society, he should remain entirely neutral in politics and religion. It seems that the little matter of politics is ignored in the composition of that mythical campaign club, in this city, known (on paper) as the "Hancock Veteran Legion" The genial and accomplished commander of the "Legion" has been interviewed, and to judge by his statements, the company is organized somewhat on the basis of the G. A. R, where no political questions are allowed to enter. The General states that the "Legion" now numbers 104, "but a good many of them would vote for Davis, there being no restrictions as to how a member shall vote." Now this is practical reconciliation, and it is just possible that some of our Garfield Veterans might retaliate by "going for"—Plaisted'

General Hall asked the Fort Pillow Butcher, Chalmers, if he approved the murder of Judge Chisholm. He replied by saying, "he neither approved nor disapproved." He found himself situated like the fellow who, when asked if was guilty or not guilty, answered, "How can I tell, your Honor, until I hear the evidence?"

The letter in our columns from Captain Merrill gives good and sufficient reasons why one of our Plaisted premiums shouldn't be paid to Mr. King, the only individual who has pretended to claim them. Those familiar with the organization and history of the old Eleventh Maine, will not doubt the word of Capt. Merrill, as brave a soldier as ever drew a sword. The premiums are still offered.

A HERO ON PAPER.

Was Gen. Plaisted Ever Under Fire in Battle?

The Question answered by a Brave Officer in the Eleventh Maine.

BANGOR, Aug. 28, 1880.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

If you have not paid over the "Plaisted premium" to King, just hold up for a short time, to hear from other members of the Eleventh Maine. I was present at the engagements referred to by King, and probably known as much of what occurred as any other man in the regiment.

At Yorktown, Virginia, April 29th, 1862, the regiment under command of Col. J. C Caldwell, was ordered to advance into an open field, in sight, but not within rifle shot of the enemy. One shot only from their artillery was fired which passed over the regiment about forty feet high, and struck in the top of a tree in the rear, therefore, probably nearer Plaisted, than others of the command, and had he been "up a tree" as he was said to be on the night the mules got loose and ran through the camp at or near the "Fair Oaks" battle ground, King might justly claim the premium offered by you.

After the shot above mentioned, the regiment moved to the right under cover of a belt of woods, and Company "A" advanced as skirmishers, a few shots were fired and one man, private Mace of the line of skirmishers, killed

The next engagement in which King saw so much, was that at "Fair Oaks." I cannot say that he was not under fire as I was on picket with Capt. Sabine, and had with me companies "E," and "I" and a part of company "D" I know that a large part of the remainder of the regiment was on fatigue duty, and it was reported that the whole number of men in camp that went into action in the capacity of a regiment, was but ninety-three, and to read Plaisted's report of the wonderful manner in which he handled them, reminds one of that captain of a canal boat, who, when desirous of "showing off" ordered, "all hands on deck, come up here both of you."

At "White Oak Swamp," the next place where King saw Plaisted under fire, the "Eleventh" supported a battery. The artillery men suffered, and a few shots went over our regiment, all too high, with a single exception, and that did no harm, not a man was killed or wounded as we lay on the right of the battery and out of range of most of the shots Lastly, at "Harrison's Landing," if Plaisted was under fire he must have been away from the regiment for it was not under fire during all our stay there, and the nearest we came to it, was when one night the rebels ran a battery up to the opposite bank of the James river and opened fire on our transports lying at the wharf, fully one-half mile below our camp Lieut Col Campbell and Major Shaw were in command of the regiment a part of the time that it camped at Harrison Landing, and therefore our gallant Plaisted may have been away, and if he got under fire it probably was far in the front It may be that he became so thirsty for blood, and spoiling for a fight that he "Don Quixote" like, with his Sancho Panza, moved upon and engaged the enemy, unbeknown to the members of the 11th

If this succeeds in drawing fire, the "support" will be ordered up, when our "gallant (?) old soldier"—according to the pen of Plaisted—will be put in a true light before those from whom he seeks support in the coming election If he gets the votes of many soldiers Mr Editor, I can assure you that they did not belong to "the Eleventh Maine Volunteers," which was as good a regiment as ever left the State of Maine, or entered the army for the Union, and under the lead of old "Jock" Hill, and the line officers, did as good service as any in the field. The officers and men of the "Eleventh" most unanimously agree in their opinion of Plaisted,—that he was a hero on paper, when put there by H M Plaisted, and never were truer words spoken, or written than contained in a paragraph in "The Honest Truth" of Aug 25th, 1880, viz. "That Plaisted has repeatedly misrepresented his own military and civil exploits in the vain glorification of himself"

Late Captain of Co "H," Eleventh Maine Regiment

FATHER MURPHY OUT FOR THE REPUBLICANS.

Father Murphy, of the St. Dominic's Catholic church of Portland, a brother of Rev. Father Murphy, the beloved pastor of the Catholic church in Augusta, has left the Democratic party and declares it is his intention to hereafter act with the Republicans, which he says is the only party that has ever done anything for the Irish Americans. Father Murphy was highly respected and esteemed during his residence in Bangor, where he was pastor of St. Mary's church, and this independent, manly course will cause rejoicing among the best friends he had while a resident of this city.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT—PREDICTIONS

A well informed and intelligent correspondent of the Boston Journal, writes from Bangor concerning the progress of the political campaign in Maine. From his letter in that paper of Friday, we copy the following

In this Congressional District — the fourth — many people outside the State have been misled as to the situation by the frequent references to Ladd's "magnificent majority" in 1878. That majority does not now exist to be overcome. In the election of last year it was wiped out within a few hundreds, and the votes that Ladd ran behind in 1878 would have been sufficient to annihilate it without any further gains.

The canvass here has been the best organized, the most brilliant and aggressive this State has ever seen. The ground was thoroughly prepared beforehand, and when the time for a forward movement came there were no details overlooked, no supplies to bring up nor anything lacking to a steady and successful advance. Capt Boutelle has brought to the stump the same untiring energy and aggressive force which made him prominent as a political editor, and the reception which he meets with from the people amounts to absolute enthusiasm. There is no possible doubt of his election, and that by a majority so large as to astonish both his supporters and opponents.

The Bangor Commercial has lately summoned up courage to make a dirty personal attack upon Boutelle with the sole and unsatisfactory result of drawing out a challenge from him to Gen. Plaisted for a meeting in this city for joint discussion on State and National issues, a challenge accepted by the Commercial on behalf of Plaisted, but which, it is safe to bet any amount, will never be met by that distinguished soldier, who, to speak after the manner of artillerists, will "limber to the rear" more rapidly than usual to avoid the meeting.

The correspondent ventures to predict:

Were I a distinguished politician like Mr. Blaine or Mr. Hale, for instance, I would risk my reputation for political sagacity on a few propositions:

1. That the Republicans will carry the State by a handsome majority.
2. That they will certainly carry four, and probably five, Congressional Districts.
3. That every county in the State, except Aroostook, Knox and Waldo, and possibly Oxford, will go Republican.

Lastly, That this is the last campaign that the Fusion party will ever make in this State.

FORWARD TO AROOSTOOK.

Excursion of Campaign Clubs.

A GLORIOUS TIME EXPECTED.

The most elaborate and interesting excursion planned thus far during the campaign, is that arranged for Thursday of this week, when the Loyal League, Garfield and Davis Veterans, and the Garfield Club, of this city, will visit Houlton, to attend the grand mass meeting there, at which there will be speaking by Senator Blaine, Hon Geo. H. Carter and Capt. C. A. Boutelle

A special train is to leave this city at half past six in the morning, and arrive in Houlton at quarter to two o'clock, in season to participate in the meeting. Dinner and supper will be provided for the companies by the people of Houlton A despatch from Hon. Llewellyn Powers to J G Clark, Esq, tendered, at his own expense, a hotel dinner to two hundred of the campaign boys. This generous, timely offer was at once accepted, with many thanks.

The companies will be accompanied by the Bangor Band, and will participate in a grand torchlight procession in the evening, returning to Bangor after the exercises, arriving here between four and five o'clock Friday morning The fare for the round trip is $2, and to those in uniform but $1 Rally for Aroostook!

MORE TO FOLLOW

The Democrats claim that the result of Mr Gove's leaving the Fusionists will be but one vote less for the Fusionists They profess not to see that the same motives that moved Mr Gove are operating in the minds of thousands of Fusionists, who will take good care that their votes shall not aid in reinstating in power the solid South. An intelligent gentleman from York county informs us that eight hundred Republican Greenbackers in the First District will follow Gove

THE STATE CAMPAIGN

Joshua K. Osgood says he could not stand the congratulations of the rumsellers and of Andrew Jackson Chase.

Stilson Hutchins, editor of the Washington Post (Dem), who is now in Maine, writes very discouragingly about the Democratic outlook in this State He says that Maine is not expected to give her electoral vote to Hancock, that the Fusionists are weak on account of the greed of the Greenbackers, and that the National Democratic Committee should send a dozen speakers into Maine at once to challenge the Republicans.

The Maine Standard calling the Republican party the Rum party is too funny for anything

We know of no reason why temperance Republicans should prefer Anderson to Reed, and we presume very few of them will We are gratified to learn that Reed's majority is likely to reach nearly 2000 —Lewiston Journal.

The Democratic National Committee should send General Butler to Maine at once, where its party managers need a first-class criminal lawyer to defend them now that they are on trial for conspiring to overthrow the popular Government.—Boston Journal

Joshua Nye claims that he is "still a Republican," and yet he said recently that if he "had the casting vote in the coming contest he would throw it for Plaisted" That kind of Republicans are properly called Democrats or Greenbackers —Belfast Journal

General Chalmers stood up in Farwell Hall, and facing Mr Murch, declared that he and Murch had voted together every time Every Fusionist or Greenbacker elected to Congress would vote with southern Democrats in all their measures Republican Greenbackers, are you willing to support this plan?—Rockland Free Press.

Walker Blaine, Esq, who has spent the past week in this county working in the Republican cause, has placed the party here under deep and lasting obligations. Mr. Blaine is a close reasoner, careful to state only facts, and is one of the best informed young men in the country. He spoke six times during the week to crowded houses, and the verdict in every case has been that his speeches have been clear, convincing and productive of good results to the party. He has made many friends in this county who will be glad to greet him again.—Ellsworth American.

The question in Maine resolves itself in to this simple form: Shall we vote the Democratic or Greenback ticket, (the effect being virtually the same,) thereby endorsing the State-steal, and aiding to turn the National government over to the control of Southern Democrats? or will we vote the Republican ticket, thereby condemning the State-steal and aiding to retain the control of the government in northern and loyal hands?

We were yesterday interviewed by Mr. Alex. Troup, of New Haven, Conn., who was in a towering rage concerning a communication in our columns speaking of that gentleman. The communication was written by a citizen of New Haven, who ought to know what he was talking about; but we informed Mr. Troup that if any erroneous statement had been made we were ready to do the honorable thing by correcting it, as certainly we have no desire or intention of unjustly accusing even a political opponent. But in order to obtain more emphatic satisfaction, he has determined to thrash the author of the communication and sue the WHIG for $50,000, not a cent off! Our correspondent in New Haven, Mr. Troup will find a lively chap to handle; and as for the libel suit, he may proceed at once, if he likes to indulge in that harmless kind of amusement. His action, of course, is simply to manufacture political capital, and will end in Mr. Troup's making a foolish exhibition of himself.

"There was quite a gathering of Fusionists here yesterday, among them Cary, Hedman, Cochrane, Troup and——Bass. All were exceedingly glum as they discussed the political situation. The reporter who might attempt to interview them would have a sorry time of it, so cross and snappish were they. Things are not going right. They have given up counting on Plaisted's election, and won't find a Democrat or Fusionist in this vicinity who claims that Plaisted stands a ghost of a chance. A leader was heard to suggest, last evening, the entire withdrawal of the campaign funds from the State, and the virtual abandonment of the field.

The Chairman of the Greenback State Committee

Renounces Fusion!

AND JOINS THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

FUSION CRUMBLING.

PORTLAND, Aug. 27 Hon E H Gove, chairman of the Greenback State Committee, Greenback candidate for Congress in the First District in 1878, and Secretary of State under Gov. Garcelon, has written the following letter

BIDDEFORD, Aug 26

Gentlemen of the Greenback State Committee

I hereby surrender my membership of your organization, and withdraw. Hereafter I shall act with the Republican party No one can more sincerely than myself regret the necessity that compels this step The original end sought through a new party was currency reform Its present aim is "to beat the Republican party" The first issue called thousands out The second issue sends them back Against the will and calmer judgment of true men the persistent, tireless Democracy have dragged the Greenback party into this false position. I find it no longer an independent organization Its forces, as now directed, are one with the "Solid South," a factor in the struggle for Democratic supremacy. Of this party Solon Chase says "They now stand upon the hardest kind of a hard money platform, and the bourbon rule in the South where they have their own way, is a disgrace to the civilization of any country" A "Solid South" is the boast of the northern Democrats. It should be their shame and confusion It is not a community of ideas, begotten of free discussion, it is the harmony of fear, the unity of terrorism cemented in blood. Now we are united by fusion with this criminal and dangerous "Solid South." The young, pure blood and vitality of the Greenback party is to be transfused into the frame of this dying desperado. I can see nothing of advancement to Greenback principles in this alliance, so fraught with National peril I believe that the interests and the good of the country are best served by the defeat of the Democratic party. That I may contribute to that end in the most immediate and direct manner, I go to the Republican party.

I am yours,
E H GOVE,
Chairman.

BALLOT BOX STUFFING—THE THIRD PARTY BUSINESS

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

I noticed in the Commercial of the 23d inst, an article in regard to the Newport class, alluding to the Republicans, which reads as follows:

"The Bribers and letter thieves, must be watched this year with double care Ballot box stuffing is a method they know how to use in an extremity like the present Look out for double voting, for that will be practiced in every town where they control the ballot box"

In the face and eyes of the light that has been forced on to the actions of the Democratic party for the past year, that remark shows that their cheek is only equaled by their wilful ignorance But nevertheless it will be well for every town to watch the action of the Fusionists, for in the little town of Corinna two or three individuals were prevented from double voting by the prompt action of one young Republican in that town, who challenged the votes

In one case, Greenbacker No. 1 was just ready to deposit his vote, when it was discovered that he held two votes in his hand, was challenged, and cast one vote, which was honestly counted Greenbacker No 2 held in his hand two votes with the corners doubled over in such a manner, that they were held together, he was notified by Mr Wood that he held two votes in his hand The consequence was that but one ballot was deposited in the box.

I do not wish to be understood that the parties intended to do any "tall voting," but voters are liable to be careless, and it is well for us to watch them, and see that their carelessness does not result in a gain to the enemy. If any man thinks those votes (if they had been deposited) would not have been counted for the Fusionists, let them ask the town Clerk of Corinna if there was not one more vote counted than there were names checked on the list, and if one Democratic vote which the clerk will swear he used for a memorandum of the vote when the officers first counted the votes, found with the others, rolled up in a wad, was not counted for the Democrats

We know the Democrats are saints (?) but nevertheless, saints have fallen, so let's watch 'em, boys.

One word in regard to the temperance (?) party.

There are parties here in this section who are talking of raising a "temperance flag" Let's see who they are. In the time of the war, when we had a chance to see who were men, they were found with the band of saints (since reformed) who held up their hands in holy horror at the awful sacrifice of life that was being made, and demanded that the war should cease Men who care no more for the welfare of the nation than the Devil cares for the success of the Christian religion, one or two who are so anxious that the temperance party should succeed (in preventing the election of the Republican Governor) have formerly acted with them, but who left that party years ago. and who since that time, after a caucus of Greenbackers had selected candidates for town officers to be voted for in March meeting, openly bolted the nomination and declared their only reason for so doing was that they were temperance men, and one of the party had said in the caucus. "If we wish to succeed in electing our candidates we must select temperance men"

These are the men who are so solicitous for the welfare of the temperance party in Maine and thank God they are the only ones in this section who are foolish and blind enough to even talk of supporting those nominees, and they have no more idea of voting that way than they have of joining the church.

The question is this, shall we as temperance men gain or lose by this action?

The Republican party have given every reasonable law for the suppression of the rum traffic that has been asked for.

The Republicans enforced the law in nearly every part of the State as well as other laws were enforced.

Now if you defeat that party, you place in power a gang of thieves who stole our State House and only were caught because they went back after the site, who, in power in Penobscot County, have openly refused to enforce the liquor law, and in spite of all the temperance folks in Bangor have done. Bangor has given you an opportunity to see what our fair State would be could the Fusionists have control.

As a man who has always led a temperate life, as a member of an order sworn to use all possible means to promote the cause of temperance, as a lover of good government, I protest against this movement under the banner of "the Temperance Party." If you will persist in your wilful wickedness, come out square and inscribe on your banner, "Davis would not give me what I wanted and so we will beat the Republican party, temperance or no temperance"

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS REWARD

Twenty five dollars reward will be paid for any official notice through the Adjutant General's Office of Gen Plaisted's gallantry in the war, except such as were written by the General himself There is no doubt whatever that Plaisted's pen is mightier than his sword—and the General does not wield much of a pen either

TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS REWARD

We complete our grand list of $100 Plaisted premiums by offering twenty five dollars reward for any newspaper notice of Plaisted's services in the war, except such as were written by Plaisted himself, or in consequence of begging letters from Plaisted to the editor

A Speech by Gen Grant

CHICAGO, Ill, Aug 28 Gen. Grant, being introduced by Hon. Philip A Orton, last evening, spoke as follows: I did not intend to speak when I came here to-night I am very much like Judge Orton—I have never made a Republican speech in my life or any kind of a political speech. I am sure it would require some time and much preparation to make one of any length I can, of course, go a little further than Judge Orton, and say that I never voted a Republican Presidential ticket in my life and but one Democratic ticket, and that was many years ago, when I was quite a young man, but I will pledge you my word here to-night that if I am spared, although I shall be at some distance from you on the second day of November, I shall return to Galena to cast one Republican vote for President of the United States and I hope the city of Galena will cast a round Republican vote such as it has never cast before

STRANGE ANIMAL IN KENNEBEC COUNTY. There appears to be an animal of a new fangled species roaming through the forests of Manchester, terrifying people out of their wits. One morning last week, Loring Farr, Esq., on a meadow near his house, saw an animal about as large as a sheep run shrieking along, chasing a smaller animal which appeared to escape, when the large animal sprung into a tree, gave a yell and disappeared Several days afterwards some children while out blackberrying saw an animal of ferocious aspect coming toward them. They ran and the animal chased them but was unable to overtake them. They described it as being of the size of a large dog and running in a crouching manner. It was of a tawny color with stripes on its sides and had a long tail Mr. Richard Dunn, of Hallowell, also saw an animal under his hay rack and threw a stone at it, upon which it sprang up and chased him into the barn, growling savagely at the same time, afterwards going leisurely off across the field The creature has been seen by others since, but of what genus the animal is no one has yet discovered

CROPS IN WESTERN PENOBSCOT. A Newport correspondent of the Maine Farmer writes The hay crop in Western Penobscot is fully an average for the last ten years in bulk, the quality fine and it has been secured in the best condition. Corn is quite good at this time and is making rapid growth. I see some very fine pieces, John Stuart, of this town, has two and one half acres as heavy as you often see. The potato crop is rather poorly on account of the dry weather, and I see many pieces are being injured by the rust, but hear no complaint of rot as yet. Wheat is sound and well headed, but thin; many lots look very thin. I think the worms destroyed it after it came up in the spring. Oats will be fair, the straw is bright and kernals plump, not much barley sown. The apple crop is pretty good, and that too for the third year in succession, an unusual occurence in this part of the State. I think farmers are taking better care of their trees, and that farming is really founded on the true principle of reciprocity. Gardens are fine, never saw them looking better—vines are free from bugs and run well, and beans climb the poles.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Meeting at Norombega To-night.

Route of the Torchlight Procession.

The meeting to-night promises to be a grand affair. Arrangements have been made for an overflow meeting on the approach to the rear of the Custom House. It is expected that Mr. Blaine will make a short address at this meeting in addition to his speech in the hall. Other distinguished speakers from abroad will also speak The clubs are to meet at seven o'clock and march to the Bangor House, escorting the speakers to the hall The City Committee publish in another column the arrangements at the hall, which will prevent confusion Special trains are to be run from Bucksport and Oldtown. The Garfield Club in uniform are coming from Bucksport, accompanied by the Bucksport Band, and a supper is to be furnished them in City Hall after the meeting. As this will be the last opportunity to hear Senator Blaine in this vicinity there will be a grand outpouring of the people to do him honor

After the meeting there will be a short parade of the companies with torches, and all Republicans living on the line of march are requested to illuminate their houses. The procession will move from the hall up Main street to the Bangor House, when the speakers will be left The route will then be through May street to Summer through Summer to Cedar, up Cedar to Second, through Second to High, up High to Ohio, up Ohio to Court, down Court to Hammond, down Hammond and across Kenduskeag bridge to State, up State to Essex, up Essex to Garland, through Garland to Grove, down Grove to State, down State to Broadway, down Broadway to Washington to the Bucksport depot, where the Bucksport company will take the train The clubs will then march to their headquarters and be dismissed.

Violations of the Game Law

Within the present year the powers and duties of the Commissioners of Fisheries for Maine have been extended (as also of Wardens) so as to apply to the enforcement of the game laws Already there have been many offenders apprehended and fined for killing deer and birds during close-time, and one of the more recent cases was a violation of the law on woodcock, that cost the offender $40 and costs —a total of $60—for shooting woodcock before September 1st In all these cases one half the fine is paid to the prosecutor In the instance referred to the prosecution was made by one of the commissioners, and he received the amount to which he was entitled by law as prosecutor ($20), but gave it to the County Treasurer for the benefit of the poor in the county in which the offense was committed

The Commissioners prosecute every case of violation of the fish and game laws of which they have knowledge whenever the necessary evidence can be procured If the Legislature of each succeeding year grants the necessary appropriation for the support of this department the fish and game laws of the State will each year be as well enforced as other laws

Printed abstracts of the general law of the State relative to fish and game have been distributed, so that there need be no transgressions through ignorance if no change is made in the existing well known and excellent laws

The next annual report of the Commissioners of Fisheries and Game, will probably afford some profitable reading especially for those who have been in the habit of ignoring the laws of the State.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Outrageous Exhibition of John F Robinson at Garland—A Terse Letter from Mr Oak.

GARLAND, Aug 28, 1880

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

As I have been represented by the Daily Commercial as a leader in disturbing a Greenback meeting held at the Town House on the 18th inst., and also that others and myself had asked their speaker, Mr Robinson, insulting and impertinent questions, all of which he, Mr Robinson, promptly answered, and that it was a large and enthusiastic meeting and would result in large and handsome gains for their party, I would like to give a just statement about that meeting, not to vindicate myself altogether, but to correct the false impressions that such statements would give to the public

On the 18th, the Garland Town Hall was not over two thirds filled with ladies children and voters, of which I should think one-fourth were of the two former, and two thirds of the latter were Republicans The first speaker, Elliot Walker did not get up steam enough to be heard in some parts of the hall and therefore many left and were outside listening to one Jones a Fusionist, who said he could make a better speech—and I guess he could—if he would let cider alone

Mr. Robinson commenced his talk in such a different strain that he drew those outside into the hall. His speech consisted in blackguardism and disrespectful flings at the Republicans, and particularly attacked Hon Lyndon Oak who is a gentleman as far above him as he is above his relatives that Darwin speaks of.

I felt so indignant at such a tirade, and thinking to change the current of his remarks, I asked him to tell us of the count-out, and to give it to us as it was. He commenced by saying that it was all gotten up by the Hale Committee, and that bribery and fraud were carried on by the Republicans to gain their ends I told him that he knew better, and that God in heaven was looking down upon him and could see that he knew better, and that if I was furnished with a thousand dollars, and was so disposed, I could exhibit that money and state that a man gave me that for my vote or not to vote. That was the extent of my disturbance.

Mr. Gerry asked him to explain the State taxes as compared with the Republican and Fusion rule, but he said he should not Mr. Lyndon Oak asked him to qualify some remarks he had made about him and the college at Orono Robinson said he was mistaken, and took back his words spoken

Their own party admit it was a slim and weak affair, and will not benefit them

We are satisfied that on the thirteenth of September Garland will speak as heretofore for the right which cannot be counted out

Yours,
LLEWELLYN O. OAKS.

"Col" Clark on the Stump

BURLINGTON, Aug. 28, 1880.

DEAR SIR Last evening the people of Burlington and Lowell were entertained by "Col." Isaac R Clark, of Bangor and Dr. Lawrence, of Massachusetts, to a political harangue upon the issues before the American people. Dr. Lawrence tried to show that Gen. Garfield was the embodiment of all the corruption of which the Republican party stands charged, and that he was the sole instigator of the late civil war. "Col." Clark vindicated the State steal, and said the question for the people to settle at the September election was whether we shall have a government by the people or by the Judiciary. There were about twenty voters present and part of them were Republicans who went out of curiosity. M.

Republican Rally in Exeter.

On Thursday evening last Thomas H. Wentworth, Esq., of Bradford, and Hon. T. J. Peaks of Charlestown, addressed the citizens of Exeter on the political issues of the campaign. The Town Hall was well filled with ladies and gentlemen, who gave the speakers their earnest attention until the close, when they attested their appreciation by giving them three hearty cheers. Several, who have hitherto been Greenbackers, have got their eyes open, and declare that they shall go there no longer.

The Garfield and Davis Club of Oldtown was organized at a meeting of the Republican voters, held August 17th, with the following officers. President, Geo F Dillingham; Vice Presidents, W. C. McCausland, Geo. H. Hunt, Eli Rigby and J B Walker; Secretary and Treasurer, David Norton; Executive Committee, James Weymouth, Dr. B F Small, Dr. J N. Norcross, Capt O E W Hinckly, A. O Brown, D. N. Estabrook, J C Pease and Chas. F. McCulloch, and a membership of two hundred staunch Republicans who mean business.

Meeting at Bucksport.

Emery Hall at Bucksport was more than crowded, last Friday evening, to listen to Gen. Kilpatrick, who gave us one of the very best and most convincing arguments of the campaign. After the meeting the Garfield and Davis club numbering fifty torches, paraded the streets in uniform headed by the Bucksport Cornet Band The campaign has opened with a great deal of enthusiasm, and Bucksport will give more than her usual majority for the "Little Corporal."

NORIEGA CIGARS merit all the popularity they have acquired Try them.

To East or West, or North or South,
They to themselves an outrage do,
Who cannot boast a fresh sweet mouth,
With teeth like pearls begemmed with dew
When SOZODONT all this supplies,
And works the charm before our eyes.

A PUBLIC DUTY

We are not in the habit of puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, for the business of a newspaper is to let people know what is going on in the world, and not to lend aid to what may be an imposition. But we happen to know Dr David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it, and thus find relief from suffering no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equals We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs —Daily Times d&w2w aug20

Vitalizing, nourishing and stimulating, without intoxicating, are Malt Bitters 17

A GOOD INTRODUCTION.

Favorite Remedy was introduced into Connecticut in 1877, at the solicitation of Rev J G Smith, of Hartford who, after having suffered for years from Chronic Liver Disease and Indigestion, obtained the medicine and was cured This faithful pastor, thinking of the bodies as well as the souls of his people, at once commenced the advocacy of "Favorite Remedy" among them, and has been the happy instrument of saving scores of lives Favorite Remedy is now as well and favorably known in Connecticut as along the Hudson One Dollar a bottle All druggists sell it. Dr David Kennedy, Proprietor, Rondout N Y d&w2w aug20

No purer sugar, more unobjectionable stimulant in medicine than Malt Bitters 17

Delay is dangerous Do not longer cling to the old method of curing coughs and colds with rum and molasses, it is a dangerous remedy. Adamson's Botanic Balsam is a sure cure every time, pleasant to take, and works like a charm aug30 MWSaw

[Written for the Whig and Courier.]

THE CAPTURED HAWK.*

BY FRANK YLLLAND.

'An unco mournful tale.'—Burns.

A prowling hawk with a selfish eye
To business, lately hovered nigh
A barnyard, but disturbed, did fly,
For better view, to nearest chimney top.
Thinking the landscape he would just survey,
And have one eye at least for feathered prey.
A youth who had disturbed and seen him skim,
Now fixed a keen, cool business eye on him;
Took up a pebble, stripling David like,
To try if he this Philistine could strike.
With neither sling or bow, his arm he bent;
His aim was true, and down the chimney went
The sprawling hawk. He had no time to scream,
So quickly ended was his waking dream.
He dreaming was no doubt of chicken hash,
For supper, when the unexpected crash
Did to the dark and lower regions send him,
Without a single backer to befriend him.
His wings, too large, or chimney rather small,
He bravely strove, but could not rise at all.
So sins, or gravitation brought him down,
A prisoner close, and suitably done brown.
No feathers lost but somewhat badly stirred,
A great deal blacker, if not wiser bird.
When taken off and marketed for gold,
At taxidermist's, he was badly "sold."

MORAL

How like the Greenback hawk on windy day,
Trying his wings in search of harmless prey.
Alighting on the 'State steal' chimney top,
Instead of prey an unexpected pop,
Like arrow from a trusty unseen bow,
Sent him in floundering to the depths below.
And you may bet, (while he may fret and frown,)
'Twas not his weight, but sins that brought him down.
Aspiring high considering his worth,
Oh! was it not nasty when he reached the hearth!
Most unexpectedly he struck "skid pan,"
And rose a dirtier if not wiser man.
Unlike the bird the youth exchanged for gold,
He was not sold and stuffed, but "stuffed and sold!"

* A true circumstance and my son, a youth of seventeen, was the hero of the incident.
Lincoln, Aug. 1, 1880.

[For the Whig.]

AUGUST

August dishevelled and forlorn,
Stands drooping amid the yellow corn,
From her great eyes the light has fled;
Her garlands wither on her head.
Her sunny tresses all unbound,
In waves of beauty sweep the ground,
And from her garments shining fold
Fall fruits she cannot longer hold,
The lonesome cricket round her feet,
Bemoan her fate with wailings sweet;
While pensive Dearie's tender tone
Joins the lament for pleasures flown.
The air is quick with nature's sighs,
As August, beauteous goddess! dies.

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extreme ends of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if not claimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State across the left end of the envelope, on the face side will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.
